HOW TO TEST (& FIX!) TOILET LEAKS

A toilet leak can waste a lot of water and cost you money. Finding and fixing these leaks is simple.

Step 1: Get some dye.

Grab free toilet tank leak detection dye tablets from IRWD headquarters during business hours, or buy some from your local hardware store.

Wait 10 minutes (do not flush!). If color shows up in the bowl, you've got a leak. Once the test is complete, flush your toilet to avoid staining the bowl.

Step 2: Drop the dye tablet into toilet tank.

Remove the tank lid from your toilet and drop in the dye tablet.

Step 3: Replace the flapper or inflow valve.

Purchase a DIY repair kit from a hardware store. View a video tutorial at IRWD.com/checktoilet.
